

PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD'S DECISION

APPELLANT: Kevin Kelly
DOCKET NO.: 04-23321.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 03-29-205-041-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Kevin Kelly, the appellant, by attorney Rusty A. Payton of the Law Offices of Rusty A. Payton, P.C., Chicago, Illinois; and the Cook County Board of Review.

The subject property is a 40-year old, two-story masonry dwelling containing 2,622 square feet of living area with a full, unfinished basement, a fireplace, and a two-car garage.

The appellant submitted evidence before the Property Tax Appeal Board claiming unequal treatment in the assessment process as the basis of the appeal. In support of the equity argument, the appellant submitted a grid analysis detailing four suggested comparable properties. On the appellant's map, two of the comparables are located two blocks from the subject, and two are located approximately one-half and one mile from the subject. The comparables are two-story frame or frame and masonry dwellings that range in age from one to 53 years old. Photographs supplied by the appellant indicate that one of the comparables is actually a one-story dwelling. Three of the comparables have unfinished basements, and one has a partial basement. Each comparable has central air conditioning, and two comparables have fireplaces. Photographs supplied by the appellant indicate that at least three comparables have one-car or two-car garages. The dwellings have living areas that contain 2,738 to 3,251 square feet, and their improvement assessments range from $7.14 to $11.83 per square foot. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $13.45 per square foot. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's improvement assessment.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND:	$	6,283
IMPR.:	$	35,264
TOTAL:	$	41,547

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject's assessment was disclosed. In support of the subject's assessment, the board of review offered property characteristic sheets and a spreadsheet detailing three suggested comparable properties that are located on the same block or one block from the subject. The comparables are two-story frame and masonry dwellings that are 39 or 40 years old. One comparable has a partial, finished basement; one has a partial, unfinished basement; and one has a full, unfinished basement. Two comparables have central air conditioning, and one has a fireplace. Each comparable has a garage, either one and one-half car or two-car. The dwellings have living areas that contain 2,471 to 2,680 square feet, and improvement assessments that range from $13.63 to $14.18 per square foot. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The Property Tax Appeal Board further finds that a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted. The appellant's argument was unequal treatment in the assessment process. The Illinois Supreme Court has held that taxpayers who object to an assessment on the basis of lack of uniformity bear the burden of proving the disparity of assessment valuations by clear and convincing evidence. Kankakee County Board of Review v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 131 Ill.2d 1 (1989). The evidence must demonstrate a consistent pattern of assessment inequities within the assessment jurisdiction. After an analysis of the assessment data, the Board finds the appellant has not overcome this burden.

Both parties presented assessment data on a total of seven equity comparables. The appellant's comparables one and two differed substantially from the subject in location; comparable one also differed substantially in age; and comparables two, three, and four differed significantly in size from the subject. As a result, the appellant's comparables received reduced weight in the Board's analysis. The board of review's comparables were very similar to the subject in location, age, and most physical characteristics. These comparables had improvement assessments of $13.63 to $14.18 per square foot that support the subject's improvement assessment of $13.45 per square foot. After considering adjustments and the differences in both parties' suggested comparables when compared to the subject property, the Board finds the subject's per square foot improvement assessment is supported by the most comparable properties contained in the record, and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

As a result of this analysis, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds the appellant has not adequately demonstrated that the subject dwelling was inequitably assessed by clear and convincing evidence, and a reduction is not warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board are subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
